

Empowering Attorneys to Fight Against Hate

A Two-Part Roundtable Discussion Addressing the Rising Tide of Hate and Violence Against AAPIs and What We Can Do as Employment Attorneys to Combat Racism

CELA and FAIR proudly present the 10th Annual Diversity Leadership Summit. Our focus this year will be on the recent rise of anti-Asian harassment and violence, and the special role that employment attorneys play in shaping the dialogue on race and the laws used to combat systemic racism.

June 3, 2021 from 1:00 to 4:00pm - Virtual Platform

Register: www.tinyurl.com/CELASummit21

Approved for 2.0 Recognition & Elimination of Bias CLE credits

CELA is a State Bar of California approved MCLE provider #2292

Poster by Amanda Phingbodhipakkiya

Panel 1 - The Issues: Examining Anti-Asian Hate

Part 1 of the roundtable discussion will include a panel of academics and activists discussing the complications giving rise to AAPI hate incidents, including the so-called model minority myth, which has been used as a racial wedge to deflect attention away from institutional racism, and the treatment of Asian Americans as perpetual foreigners.

- Professor Russell Jeung: Co-Founder of Stop AAPI Hate, Professor of Asian American Studies at San Francisco State University
- Angela Oh: Mediator
- Michael Thomas: Principal, Jackson Lewis
- Lisa Mak: Attorney, Minami Tamaki LLP (Moderator)

Panel 2 - The Solutions: Overcoming Racism and Hate

Part 2 of the discussion will focus on solutions and ways to implement change through the practice of law and legislation, featuring employment attorneys from both sides of the bar and other experts in the field.

- Beatrice Nunez Bellamy: Attorney, Davis Wright Tremaine
- Sandy Roxas: Attorney, Roxas Law
- Mariko Yoshihara: Legislative Counsel & Policy Director, CELA
- Lisa Mak: Attorney, Minami Tamaki LLP (Moderator)